From the perusal of your letter under reference, it is evident that following incumbents, daily waged Beldar, have completed 4 years daily wage continuous service with minimum 240 days (180 days for tribal areas) in each calendar year as on 31.03.2026.Further, they possess requisite qualification of 8th pass which is mandatory as per R&P Rules of Beldar.Therefore, they qualify the requisite criteria prescribed for regularization of their services as per Government policy as notified vide Notification No.PER(AP)-C-B(2)-I/2014-V.II dated 1st April,2026 which provides cut of date of completion of 4 years daily waged services as on 31.03.2026 respectively from prospective effect. As per Govt. notification dated 01.04.2026 the relaxation in educational qualification at para (vii) is as under :-

“The daily waged /contingent paid workers being considered for regularization shall possess minimum educational qualification as prescribed in the Recruitment & Promotion Rules of such post at the time of initial engagement. However, the educational qualification can be relaxed, if require, with the approval of the competent authority.”

The detail of daily waged workers whose services to be regularized are as under
