Subject:-

Regarding dealing with the Election complaints properly.

As you are well aware that with the coming into force of Modal Code of Conduct in view of ensuring Lok Sabha Election, by this office various complaint are received through the Election Commission against officers/officials in this department. These complaints are promptly required to be responded to, after getting the facts finding from the concerned controlling officers. But it has been observed by the undersigned that the allegations leveled in the complaint are not being addressed to properly by some of the controlling officers, to whom these complaints are forwarded for conducting enquiries; thereby resulting into unduly delay in filing the response.

In view of above you are, requested to look into the matter and conduct proper enquiry by going through each and every allegation of complaint before filing the fact finding report, as and when such complaints are sent to you.

Any deviation to this instruction will be viewed seriously.
